BELMONT PARK TURF NOTES.

Capra's victory in the first race was due partly to the energetic ride of Johnny McTaggart and partly to the negligence of Johnny McTaggart and partly to the negligence of John McCahey, who got the lead with Hester Prynne, only to lose it in the final fifty yards and drop back into third place behind Housemaid.

Capra is a richly bred filly being by Ballot—Cap and Belis. There is both speed and stamina in her blood lines and Mr. Butler said that he intended to keep the for stud purposes when her racing days are over. Her sire won many higher for stud purposes when her racing days are over. Her sire won many higher aces in this country, while her dam won the English Oaks for James R. Keene.

Many horses were shipped to Saratoga yesterday to await the opening of the big meeting in August. L. S. Thompson sent twenty three, the Oneck Stable, Schuyler L. Parsons and J. E. Wildener, Jr., thirteen each and F. Ambrose Clark, eight.

Howard, a steeplechase rider, had a bad fall while exercising a jumper hetween the races. He was carried from the fish an ambulance and taken to a hospital.

Although only one favorite won Dryad, winner of the fifth race, was the only real long shot. He was at 20 to 1 and to 1.

Therefined market was unchanged, with all interests listing standard granulated at 6.10 cents. There were no week end developments in the copper market. Quotations were purely now as actually booked. There was a break of one pound sterling in the London prices.

The sugar futures market at the Coffee Exchange was quiet, with prices which had a somewhat disturbing effect on this market. Easier. Total sales 1,600 tons. Domestic inquiry was at a minimum.

High grade spelter continued in demand, with prices holding firmly, particularly for spot shipment. In some quarters there was an inclination to shade prices in prime Western brands for late year delivery.

DAILY TREASURY STATEMENT

go West Ninety-second street, on application of Alfred B. Potterton, president of the Tottenville National Bank, a creditor for $2,000. It was stated that Mrs. Barclay owns various parcels of real estate in the downtown tenement section of Manhattan, which are, it is believed, her only assets. The real estate is heavily morigaged and the equities are helieved to be between $30,000 and $40,000. The liabilities are approximately $100,000. Mrs. Interest and taxes are due and impaid and in one case a receiver has been appointed by the State court to collect the rents. With regard to some of the property she has made an assignment of the rents to avoid fore-cleaver. Mrs. Barclay consented to the appointment of a receiver yesterday.

JOSEPH SCHWARTZ—Judge Hand has dismissed the petition in bankrupty field on June 15 against Joseph Schwartz, manufacturer of dresses at 11 West Twentieth street, in a settlement with creditors at 25 cents on the dollar.

Assignments.

JULIUS GLUCROFT. 3, 8 and 19 cent store at 1862 Third avenue, has made an assignment to Samuel Lewites.
LOUIS HASSENFIRATZ, dealer in hardware and housefurnishings at 317 Third avenue, has made an assignment to Bernhard Hermann. The business was started in 1891 by Solomon Werdenschlag, who died in 1990, and the widow has since carried it on.
